

Brief Bio – Jacqueline Sullivan, Cincinnati, Ohio U.S.A.

Mixed media, acrylic paints, pastels, calligraphy, bookbinding, and fiber arts - I have loved them all since I first discovered each medium. I have a degree in graphic design and worked for many years as a publication, marketing and advertising designer, but my passion has always been with color and paint, no matter what the surface. Personal artistic development has been a lifeline as I work my way through the challenges life has brought. My mixed media, book art, calligraphic and acrylic work has been shown in galleries and top juried art fairs throughout the U.S. and Canada. My work has been published in Somerset Studio Magazine, Cloth Paper and Scissors Magazine, The Book, "The Best of Cloth, Paper and Scissors" and the "Best of Acrylic Works 6 & 7, published by F & W Media. I believe that asking "what if?" and keeping a spirit of adventure and discovery is important as I follow my creative path. I live and paint in Cincinnati, Ohio.
